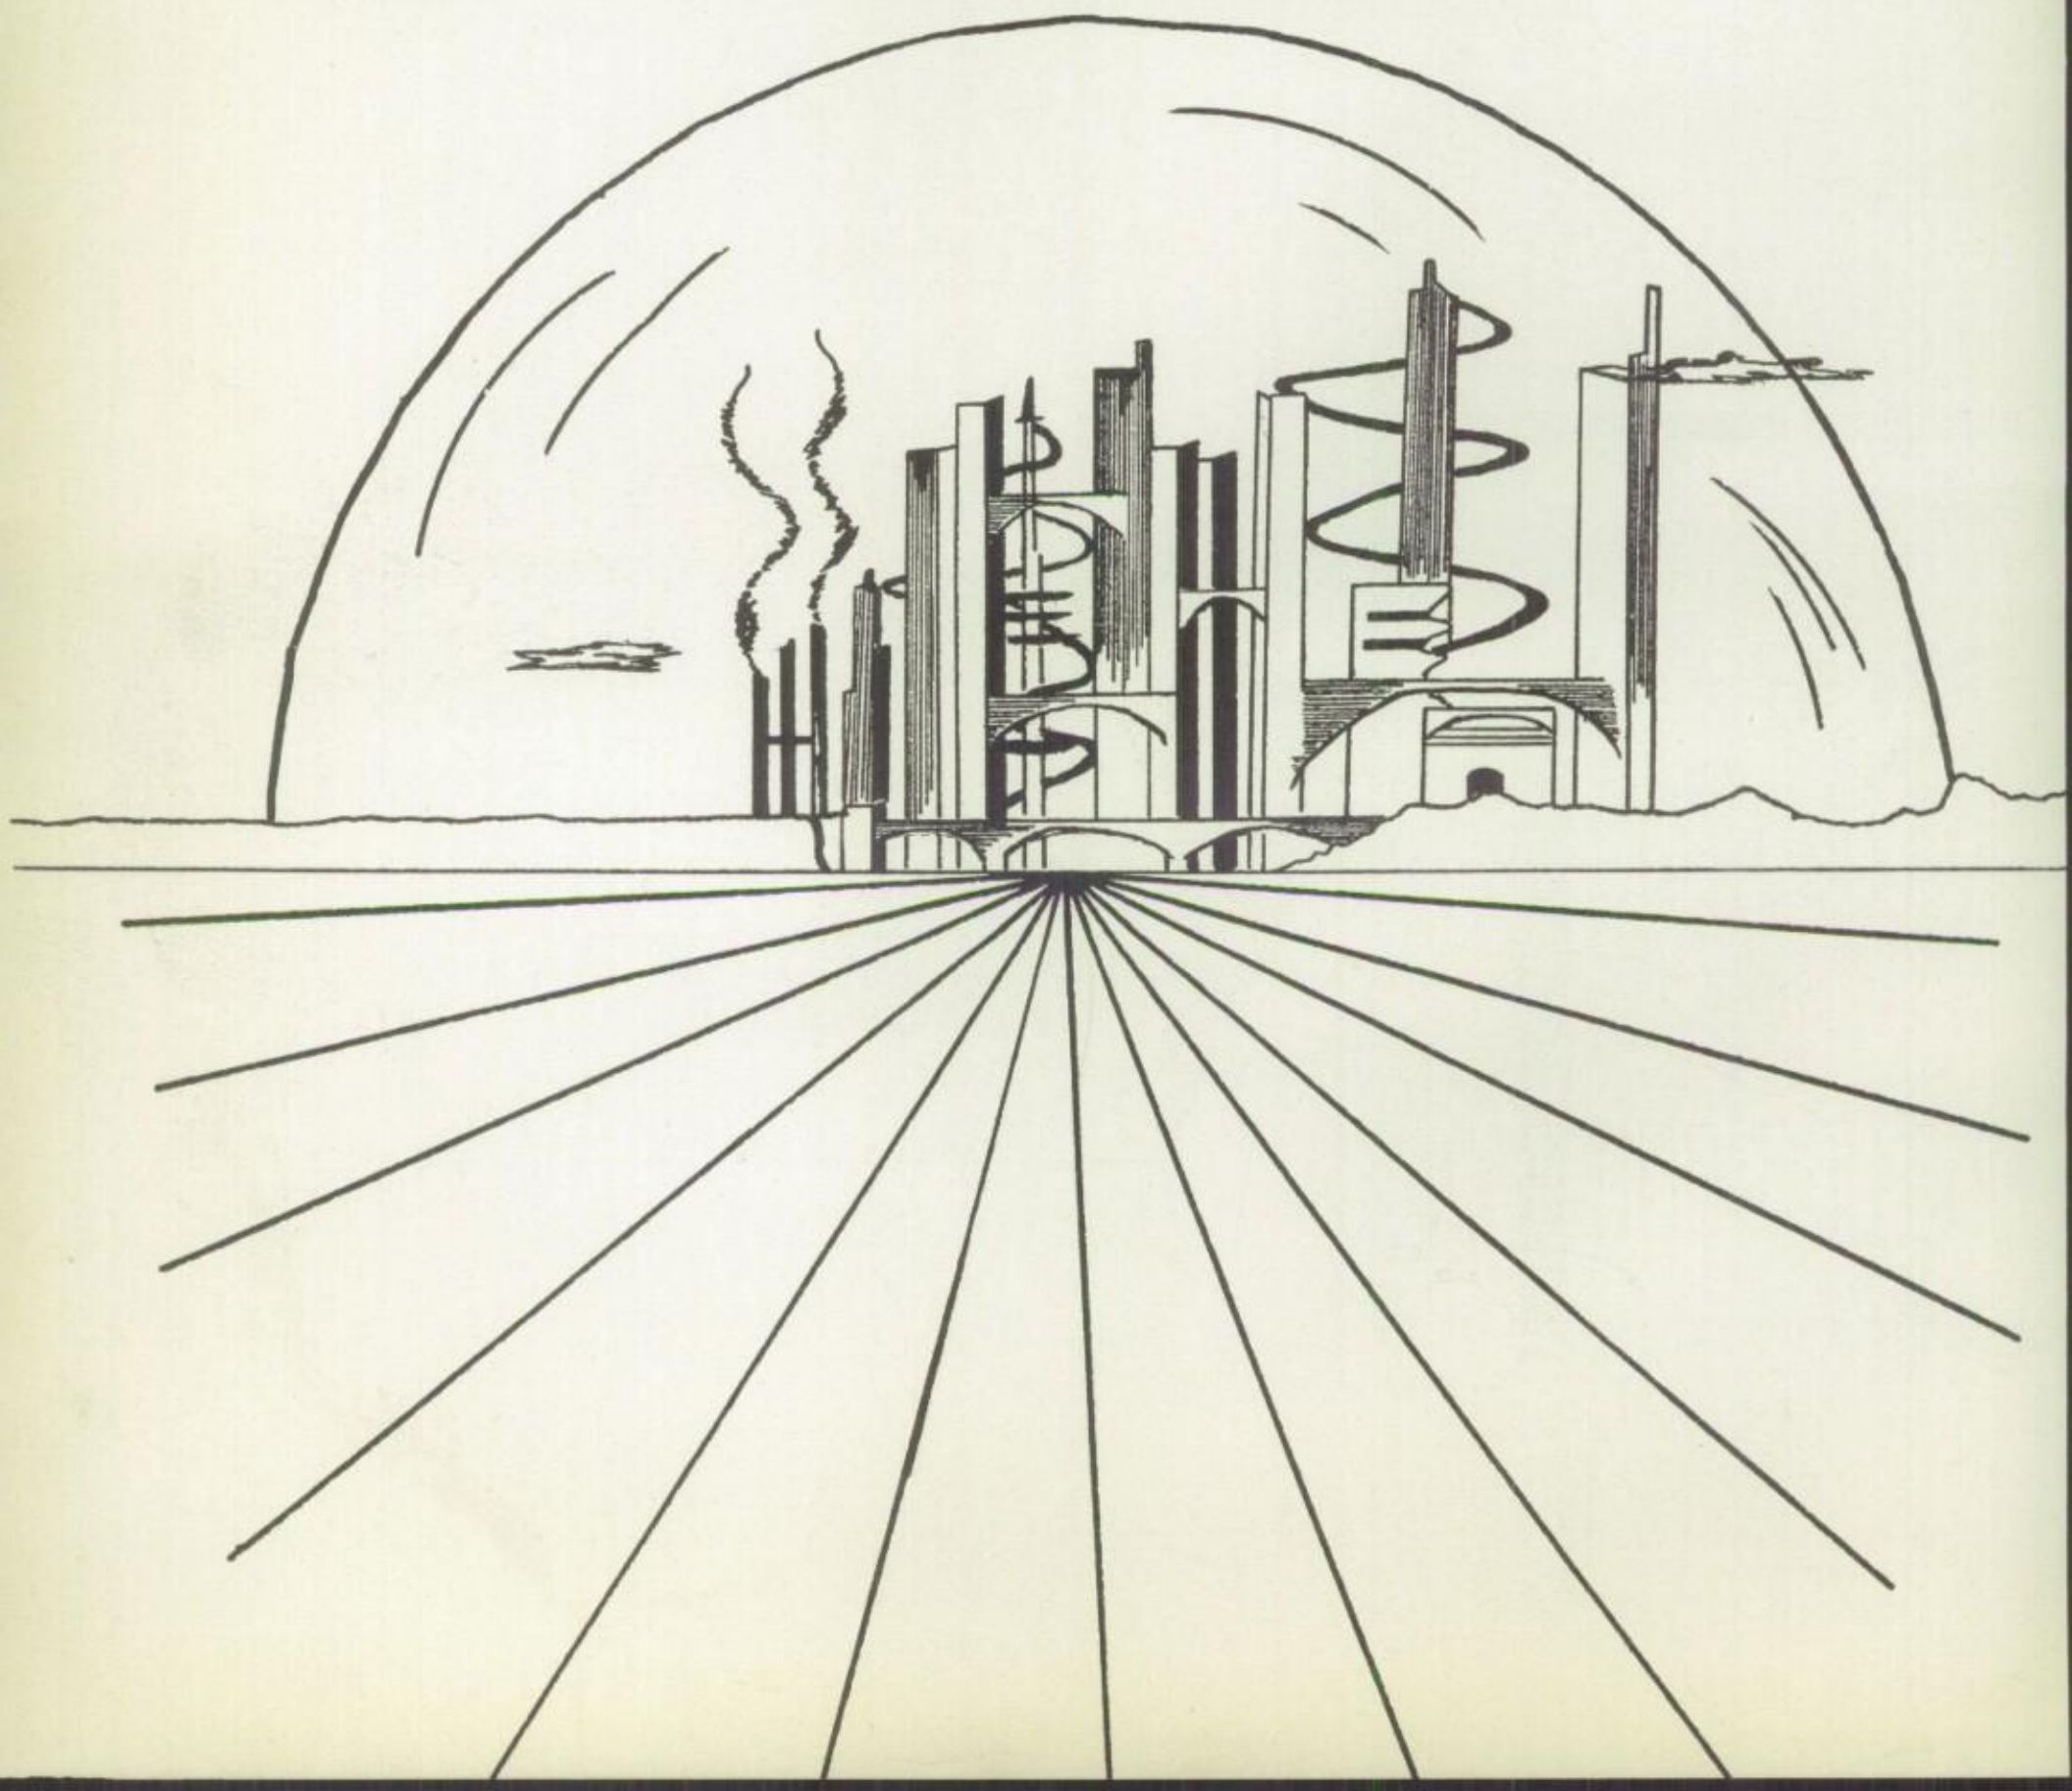
Some say the future lies waiting
Somewhere in space and time.
I say the future lies waiting
To take shape from my mind. . . .

The future! A word that arouses high hopes and deep excitement, the future has always been for every dreamer the "someday" when his dreams come true.

Having a soul, man has always been a creature of visions, and all his aspirations are for the sole purpose of seeing those ideals come true. Selfish, perhaps, and yet, without dreams there would be no reality—only existence.

Because reality must first be mere ideas in the minds of dreamers, our dreams will be the reality of tomorrow. Thus, in the 1958 Smokerings is written the future.

Step into its pages and enter tomorrow!



The most precious year in life—the senior year—touched with memories of the past, it holds the indecision of the present and looks with hope to the future.

It is a time of miracles—when a new adult steps into the world, an adult who is a mixture of wonder and awe and faith; when the adult looks back and sees what was a time of happiness.

It is a time of satisfaction—one part of life complete and successful when a diploma is laid in a waiting hand.

These are the things which make up a senior year and to those who enjoy, remember, and cherish these things and feelings, to the ones to whom the senior year belongs —

The Seniors of yesterday, today, and tomorrow, wherever and whoever they are, we of the D. H. S. annual staff dedicate the 1958 edition of Smokerings.

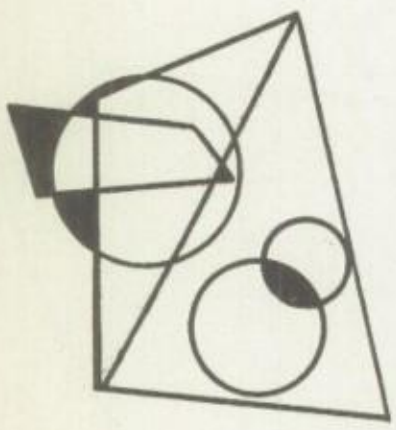
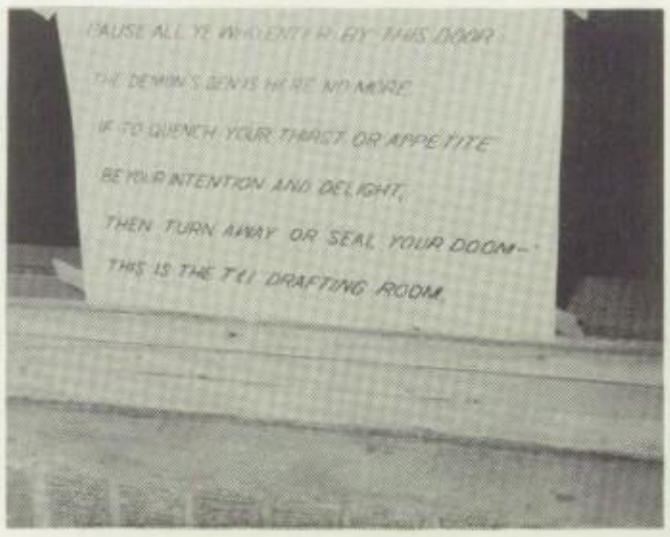
ACTIVITIES

Yep, women will always find time to talk—even at class elections.

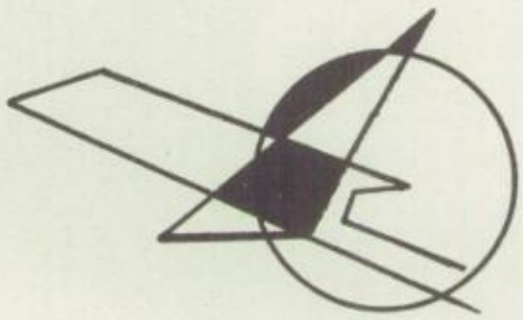
Coach Martin and DHS'ers let our boys know we're backing them all the way.





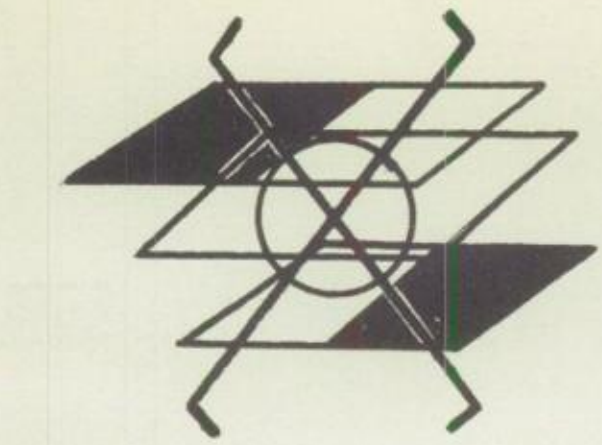
PAUSE ALL YE WHO ENTER BY THIS DOOR
THE DEMON'S DENTS HERE MY NAME
IF TO QUENCH YOUR THIRST OR APPETITE
BE YOUR INTENTION AND DELIGHT,
THEN TURN AWAY OR SEAL YOUR DOOM—
THIS IS THE TEI DRAFTING ROOM

Epitaph for the Den, closed to make room for a drafting class.



And for this they (sob) closed the Den!

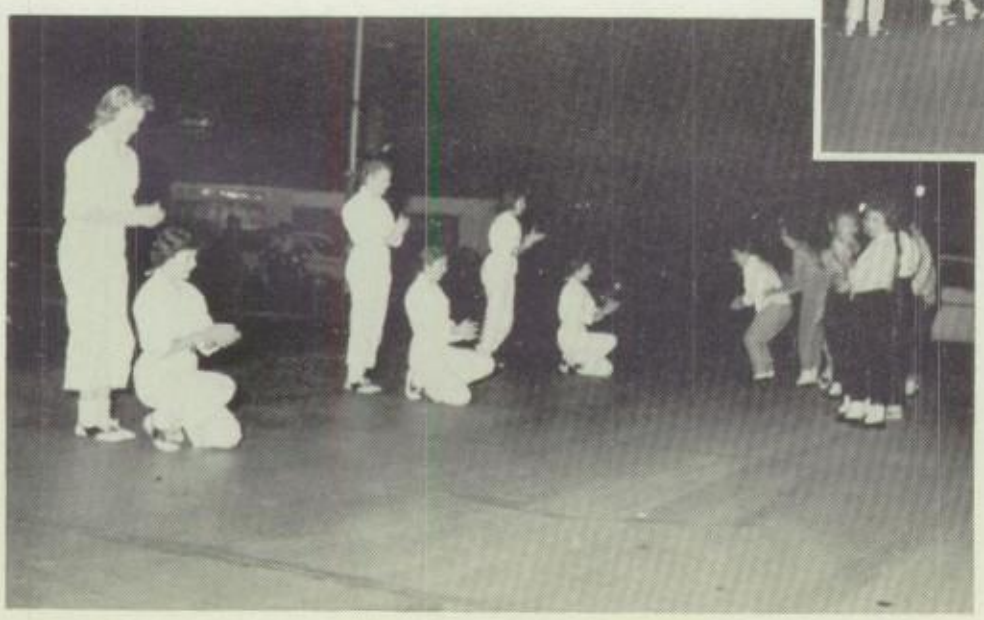
Blinded by glory—that's newly-elected class presidents Gary Richards, Sue Nell Crutchfield, and Jayne Leonard.



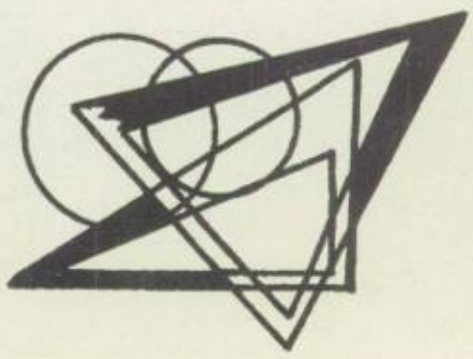
DHS' elite students are gathered in one room at the Key Club Leadership Banquet.

Dennis Jackson, Key Club and NHS president, introduces speakers.

Main Street—USA



This Thursday night pep rally was a real traffic stopper!



Hey, Judy, you can't pull Kay in the bus to Hobbs that way!

They're off! (And so will the driver be, after listening to all those girls a few hours.)

Ira Lewis maybe thinks he's a cheerleader?

Them again! We've got a busy group of cheerleaders here.

It's always sad for boys like LaNoel Bond and Monroe Gregston when a town suddenly loses all its girls.

The Student Council car wash, and — —

Phil looks like he thinks the idea is all wet!

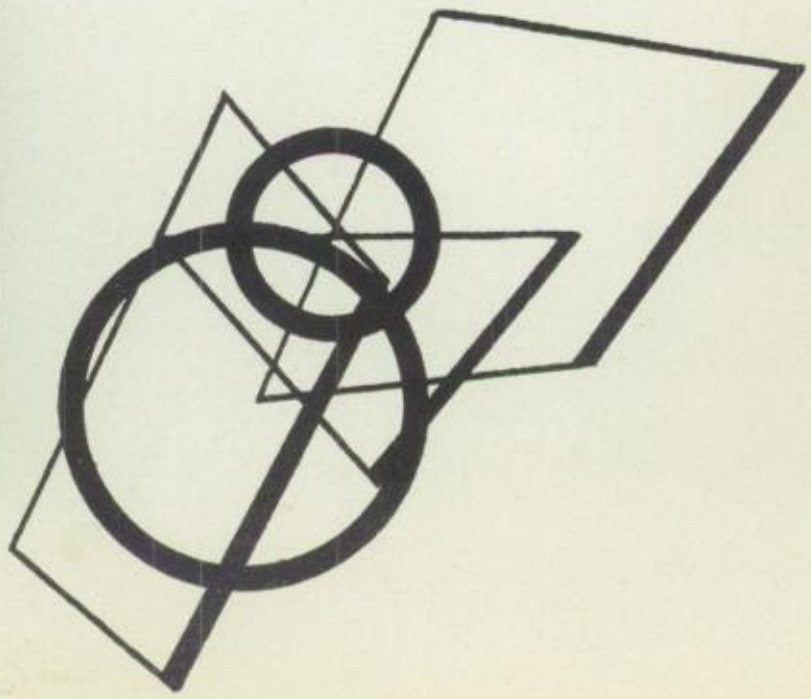
Juniors inefficient? Lies—all lies, as this picture shows them float planning.

Only 5,339,247,501 more napkins to go on the band float!



Football queen Arlene Sims, senior, is escorted by Charles Cummings to the crowning. Davd Harbour escorts junior atttendant Judy Nelson.

Arlene and Elizabeth have something in common, they're both queens and they both have heavy crowns!

Playing in the Jazz band's fun, but it "do" get sort of tiresome!

Her Majesty is crowned in the traditional manner.

A sure sign of Christmas: trimming the school tree!

Drafting, with its own tree, is a p.c. (privileged class).

The FHA installs its new officers.

With the advent of the YMCA comes a new and popular sport—ping pong!

LaNoel Bond is "mighty pleased" to accept for the FFA the keys to a 1958 pickup.

Maybe chemistry students had fun, but the rest of DHS thought their experiments smelled!

Gaylon Russell's hobo chin-whiskers came in handy during snowball weather.

No, kiddies, DHS doesn't have a bead-stringing class. It's the chemistry class again.

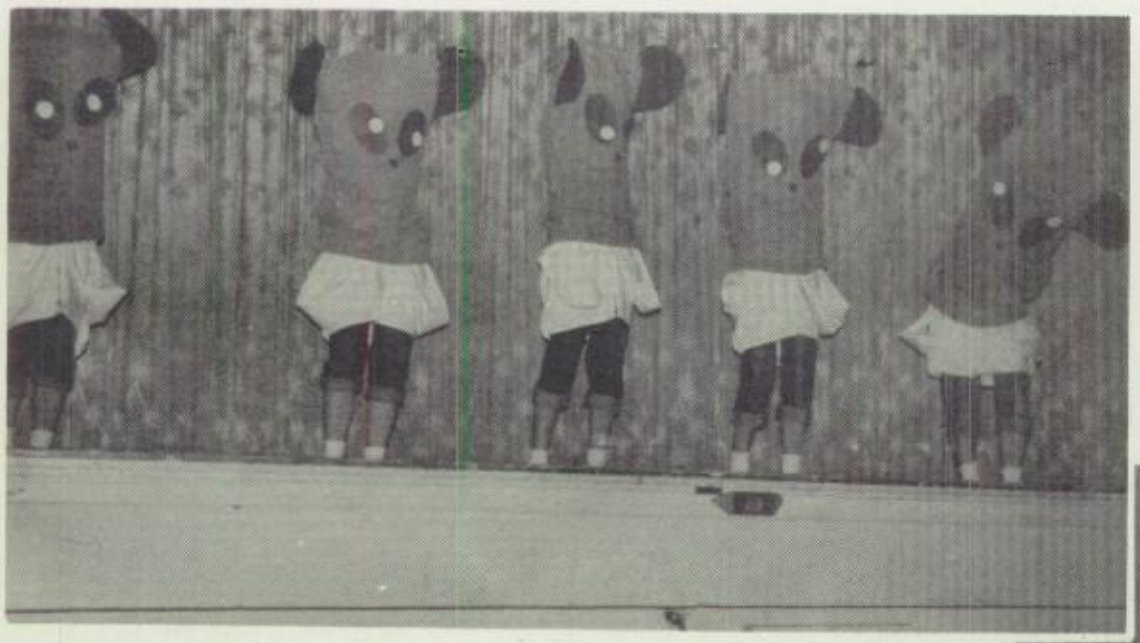
Speaking of snow (we weren't, but anyway . . .)

DHS entries for foreign exchange student through the AFS.

The lineup? Just the senior girls preparing for the Powderpuff Bowl.

The boys get a chance to watch football from the sidelines.

Somebody must have gone that-a-way. But which way is that-a-way?

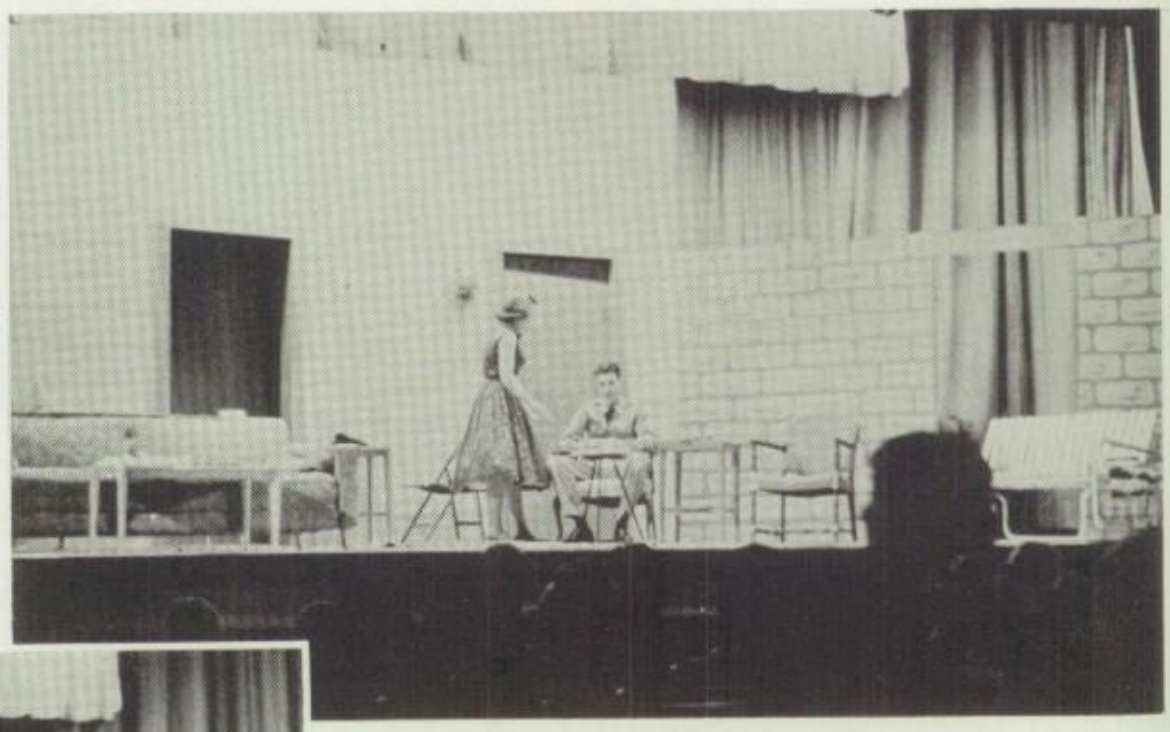


EEEK! It came from outer space! Nope, this bunch of Mouseketeers came from the portals of DHS to entertain at Junior-Senior Weekend.

Terry Lowery gets in on the act.

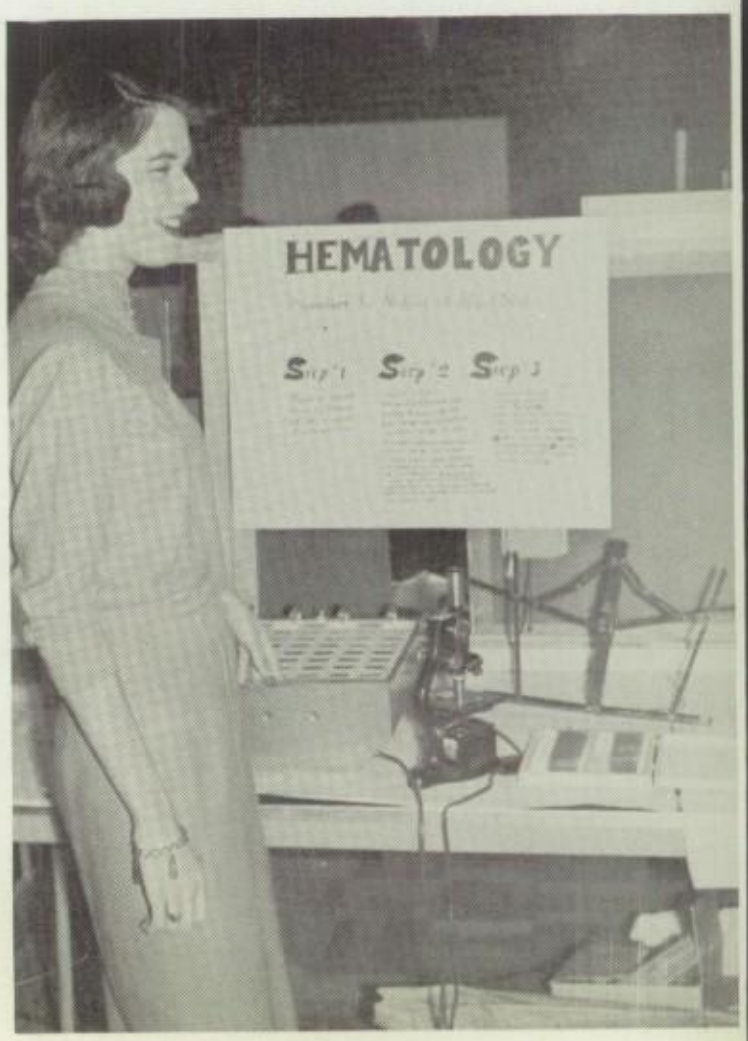
Four female groaners, alias the girls' quartet.

Basketball queen Linda Benson accepts the royal bouquet from Don Hassebroek.

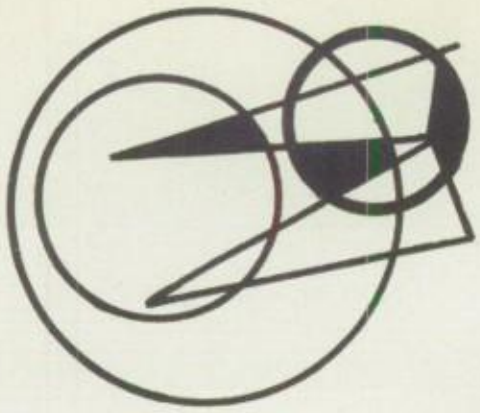


The junior play was a huge success as — —

Corliss Archer tried to help her brother and wound up in hot water herself!



Blue-blood of the show! That's the prize winning exhibi on blood, entered by Nancy Romine in the Science Fair.



Linda Rothrock makes like a relaxed bum while Sarah Willsie checks essential hobo equipment.

Yep. Even hoboes have mothers.

Enter now! Win a trailer full of trash!

Ah, yes, there's nothing like young hobo love.

Bobby thinks it's a new kind of deodorant!

Mercy no, our teachers don't look like this all the time!

Joe Bob attaches a bit of atmosphere to the prom with aid from Sue and Linda.

The juniors really outdid themselves!

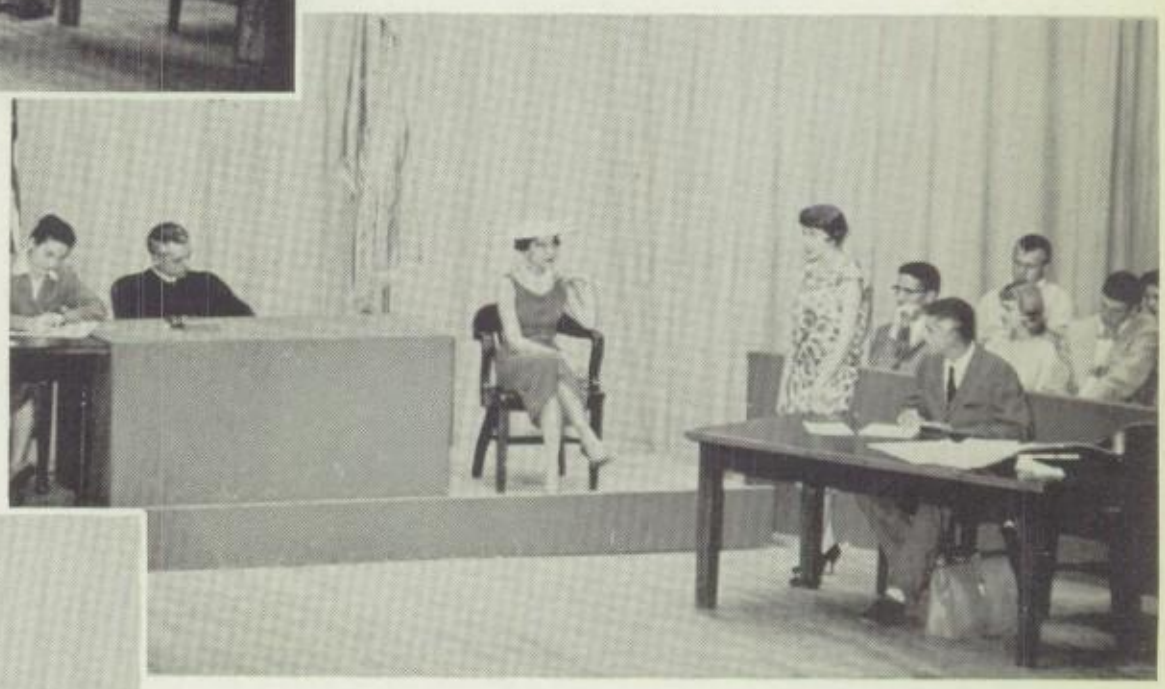
Here it is! "Sayonara, Seniors '58"

Spike and Jeanne cross a flower bedecked pond by an oriental bridge.

Hey! Who let those kids in knee-pants in?

Time out from dancing for entertainment.

Now, Dennis, keep your eyes and mind on the trial. Please?



Beals, won't you ever learn that you aren't a good lawyer?

I thought Jimmy was supposed to be a clerk.

DHS delegates to Girls' and Boys' State are, Row I: Anita Griggs, Marjorie Brooks, Mary Ann Bulla, Marion Bullard. Row II: Larry Edwards, Joe Bob Brown, Al Chew.

Senior girls portray the exciting, glamorous lives of modern mothers in this Mothers' Day assembly.

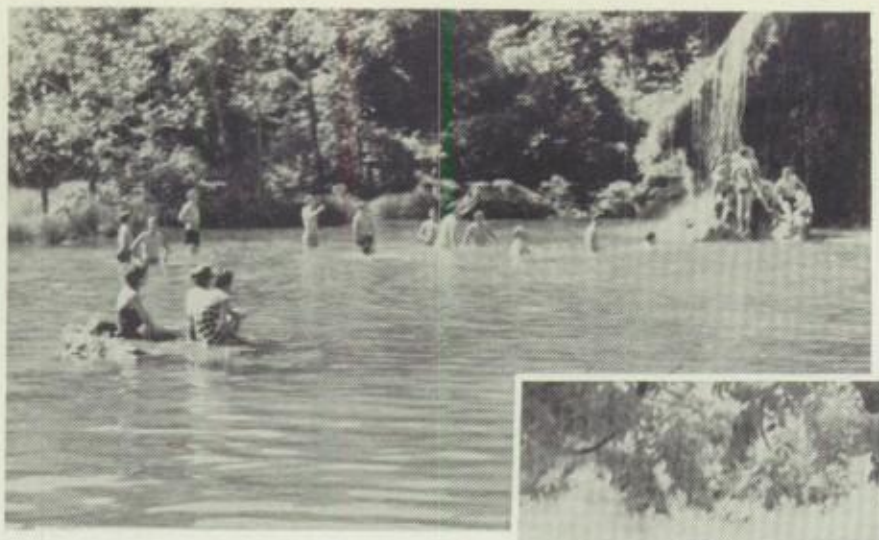
Woo woo! Sharon Barr, Carol Jones, and Rosemary Williams prove themselves fit Shebas for any sheik!

"Mother" Salli Billups gets taught the bop by swingin' Joe Roden, and — —

Elliot Bivins and Gary Richards show what happens when two women reach for the same hat!

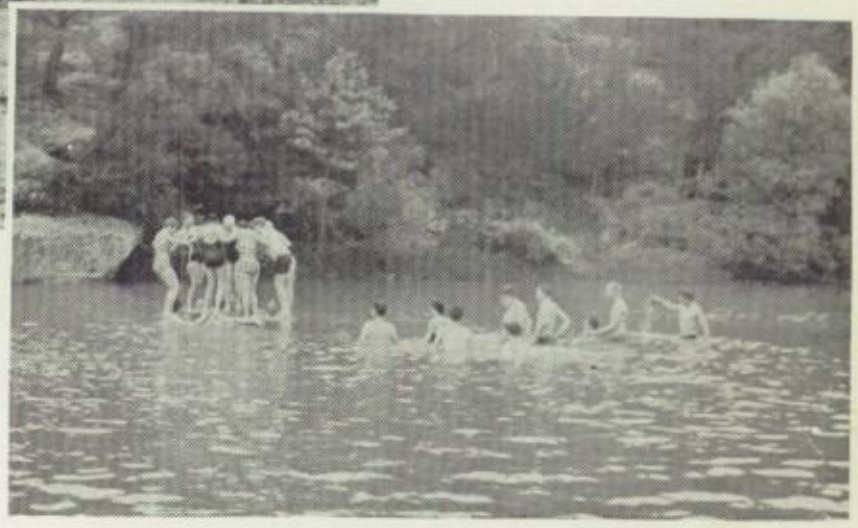
Another of Motherhood's little joys: kiddies' birthday parties!

Exercise is to keep your figure, but these ladies look like they're LOSING theirs!



Wonder why the girls don't go in? Could it be because of the boys or is it the deep water?

Some of us have it and some of us don't! Beals!!!



Wouldn't it be funny if just one person fell. Oh, catastrophe!!

I wonder what Mr. Barclay is looking at?

Some of us are really hungry. Mike Yett, is your hand as tasty as the food?

Some senior boys thought it was fun pushing them off!

But the pin was meant for the balloon, Mrs. Guest. Honestly.

Gee! If it was only actual size.

Looks like they are trying to impress someone.

DHS commencement speakers were Gary Richards, Linda Benson, Dennis Jackson, and June Harms.

"Ours Is the World" was sung by the senior chorus directed by Gerald Wheeler.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

Processional .....Band
Invocation .....Richard Alguire

DHS seniors depart from commencement and enter into a new world.

Mr. Martin is showing off again. Come on, muscles!!!

Jimmy Colgan will do anything to get his picture taken even when it comes down to dancing every dance.

Hasn't Jimmy Murdoch got a hefty serve? Only you don't throw it, Jim!

Kitty Powell will do anything to win, even stealing other people's beans.

DHS FLAMES

SENIOR BAND MEMBERS

Duncan High School Band

DAY DREAMING—Kenneth Smith and Judy Allen.

Study in Rhumba—Rhumba Feature—entire drum section.

DHS Band performing at Ardmore.

MAGIC—with Gary the Great.

Dixieland dancers.

DHS Band performing at half-time ceremonies at Duncan's homecoming football game.

Dramatics Club

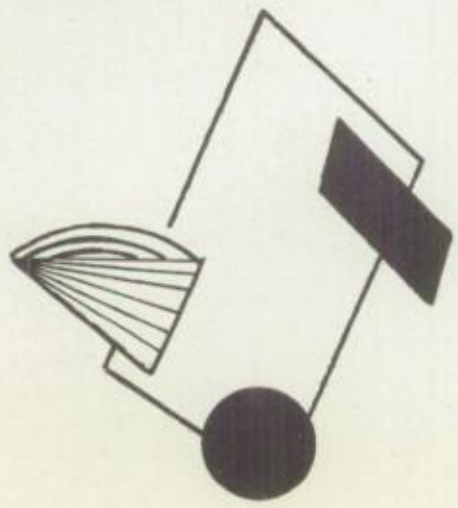
Dramatics thrives in DHS
Where plays are welcomed, we confess;
It's this club's job to play around,
And round that theme the "plot" is wound.

Future Farmers of America

Row I: Gus Page, Jimmy Murdock, Cecil Petty, Lloyd Scifres, Charles Jones, Sam Wilkerson, Tommy Howard, Robert Rhoades. Row II: Mike Teague, Peter Pemberton, Jerry Gammill, La Noel Bond, Kenneth Rauch, Larry Smith. Row III: Farrell Connet, Richard Neeld, Jerry Bowdon, Robert Gordon, ... Fine, Jerry McLenney, Benny Jones, Lloyd Brown. Row IV: Billy Aldrich, Arnold Young, Don Smith, Dickie Headrick, Freddie Hines, Billie Herrell, Charles Scifres, Bill Pemberton, Presley Berryhill.

"Boot, saddle, to horse and away,"
Here come the boys in FFA!
With three "ro-day-os" to their name
These lads have staked their claim to fame.



Future Homemakers of America

Nancy Romine, state vice president of Southwest District.

To be in here you must perk up
And always have your "homework" up
Because that's why this club was made
So future "fraus" could make the grade

FHA OFFICERS

Row 1: Judy Robinson, parliamentarian; Carol Nelson, song leader; Darlene Sims, 3rd vice president. Row II: Fern Allen, secretary; Jenny Stogsdill, reporter; Barbara Bynum, treasurer; Nancy Romine, historian; Sue Pettigrew, president.

Careful, girls, not too many cookies. Marlene Covington and Sue Pettigrew are served by Mrs. Scotte Hecht and Donna Mundy.

Future Teachers of America

OFFICERS

These future teachers are taking a lesson instead of giving one. They certainly seem to be mighty interested.

Key Club

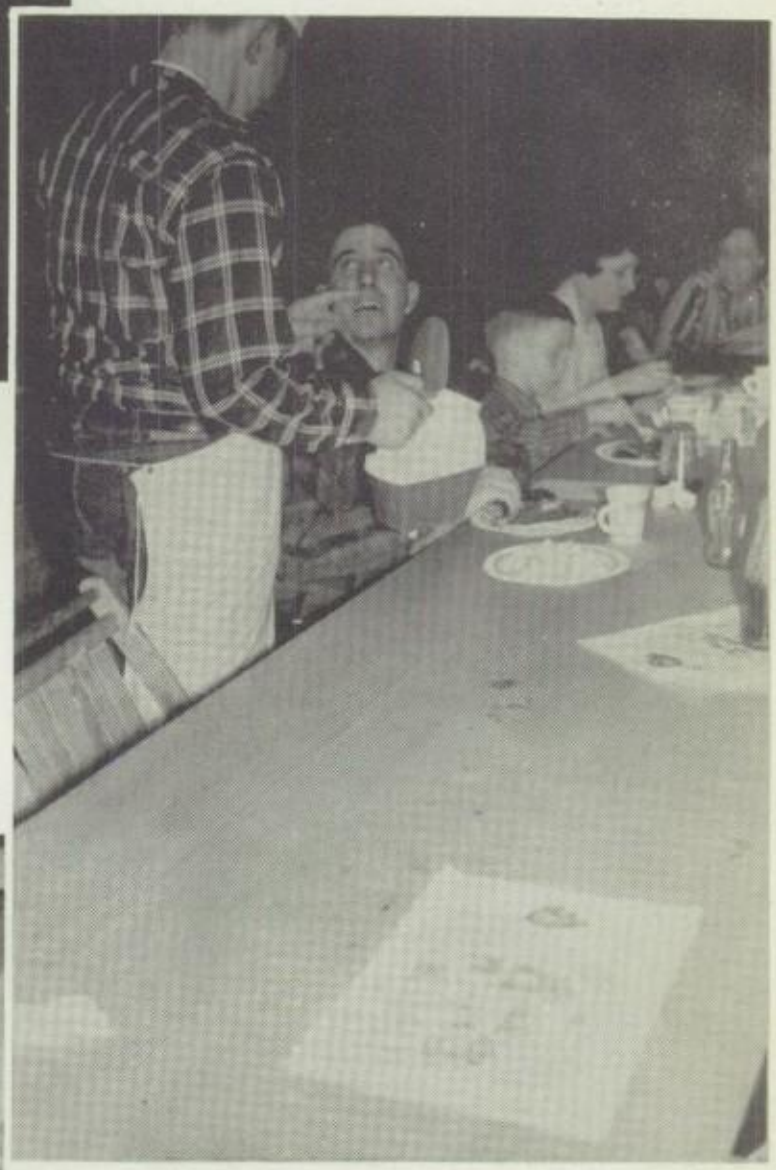
This bewhiskered gent is no other than Dennis Jackson, Key Club president.

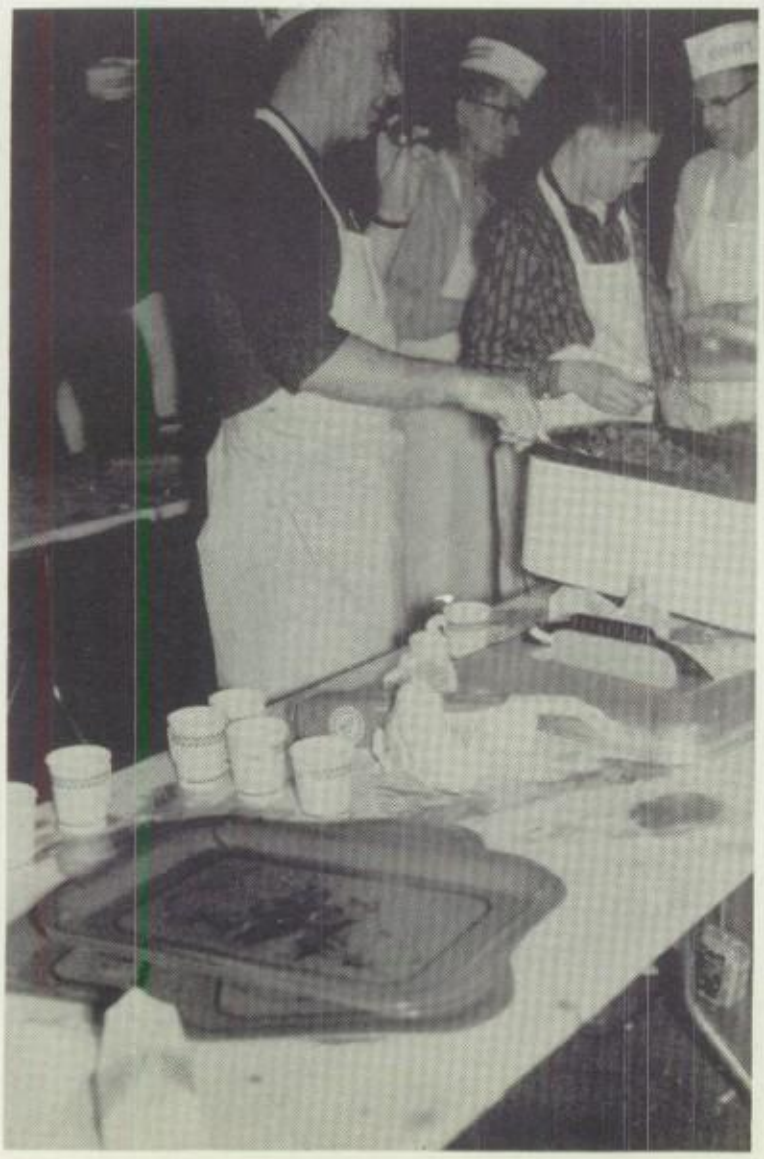
They hold the key to all that's right,
These Key Club boys with much foresight.
To do good work in school and town
Is why these boys are always 'round.

Key Club

Meanwhile, returning to their native habits, these distinguished Key Clubbers finsh up the left-over pancakes. That syrup was sticky, wasn't it?



Telling him how to eat it? You can always tell a DHS educated waiter!



There's that Mr. Smith. Been mincing in the bacon again?

Latin Club

Bet the Romans never had entertainment like this!

The sophomore girls' trio also entertained at the royal banquet.

I Wonder how Al Chew rated this.

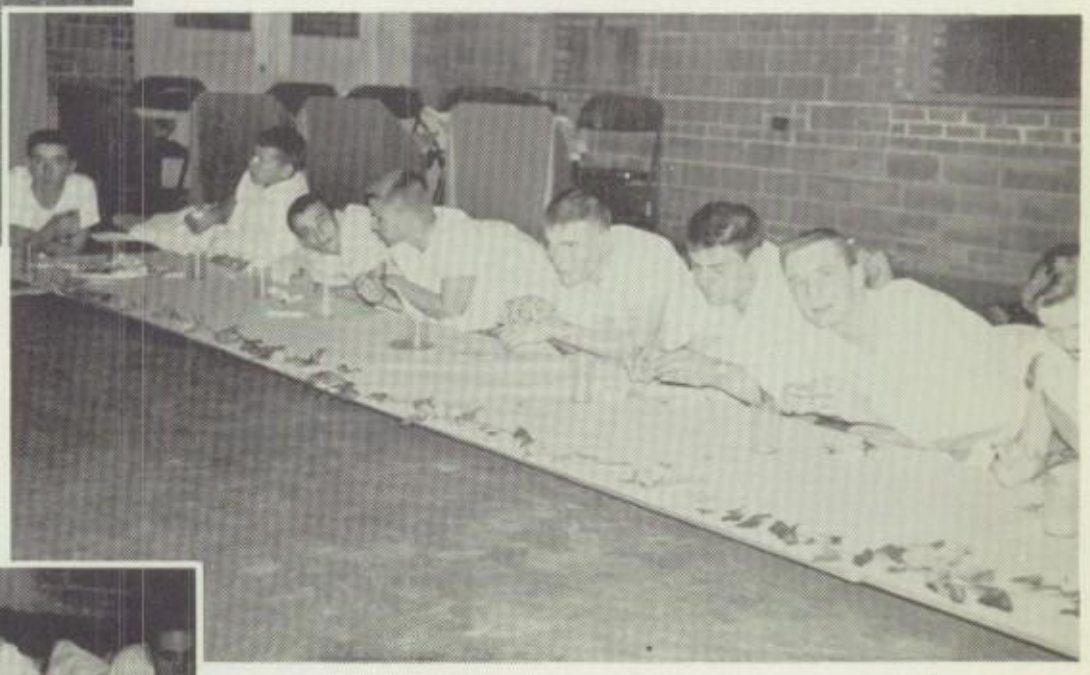
We want food said the Latin students to the slaves.

That Janie Leonard never could keep a straight face.

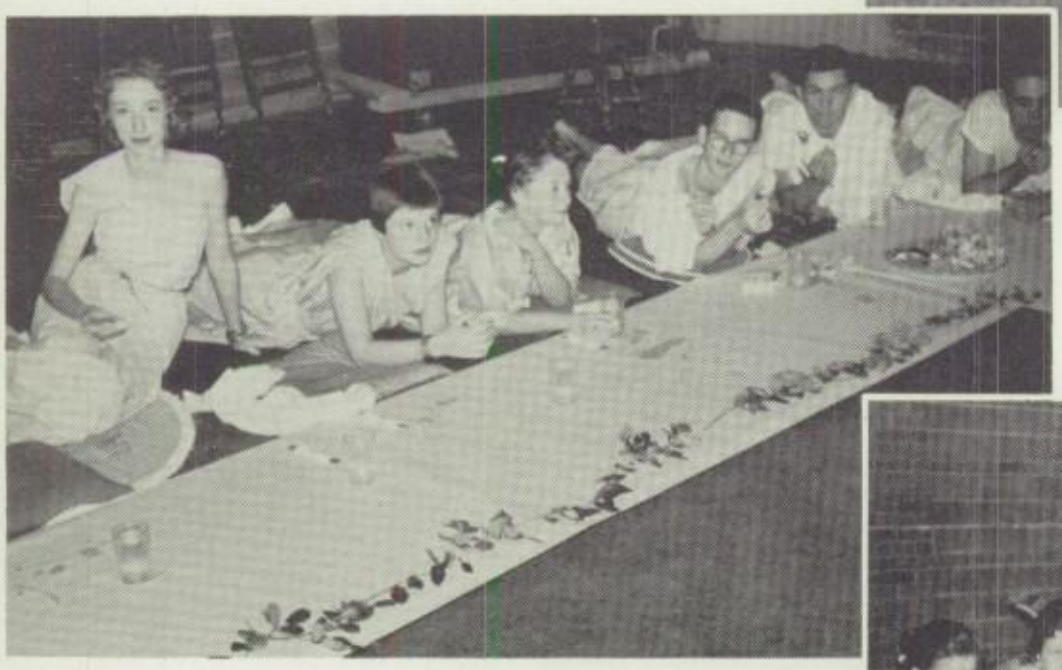
Mrs. Florence Tucker, Mrs. Harriett Bonner, and Miss Grace Richardson, DHS teachers, seem to be really enjoying themselves.

Latin Club

Must be something interesting across the table (floor). Cheer up, the food's coming.



Ah ha! So that's what's interesting?



Our foreign exchange student Vera Reckinger goes Roman too.

Wonder if they've already had the entertainment?

"From eggs to apples?" Been into the eggs again, Sue Bentley?

Letterman's Club

Lettermen's Club officers are: president, Don Hassebroek; vice president, Charles Cummings; secretary-treasurer, David Harbour; reporter, Carl Whiteley; sergeant-at-arms, Wendell Maddox.

According to the best reports
Our lettermen are all good sports;
With our support, it's safe to state
Our teams will always be just great!

You tell 'em, Weedn. These DHS lettermen initiates could use some advice. Are you listening, boys?

National Forensic League

To join the league of the Forensic
Speaking has to be intrinsic;
It must be real and felt down deep,
The path to stardom's mighty steep.

They carry torches in this class
But not for any fickle lass!
The things they weld hold good and true
Because they've learned just what to do.

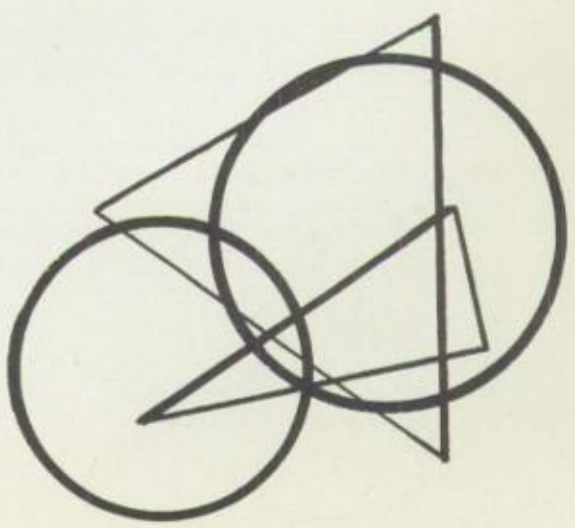
These kids are always acting up
But for a goodly purpose—yup!
Thespianites are sure exacting
They have to earn their points by acting.



DHS Chours

Music soothes the savage peon—
Listeners' faces light like neon,
When our mixed chorus sets the pace
No other school can make first "bass"!

SENIORS

Senior Class Story

Not quite ready for the rocking chair and cane, but ready for all the experiences of adulthood, the seniors of 1958 traveled through their last year in DHS.

No one is ever too old to enjoy queens. Arlene Sims, senior, was football queen and Linda Beth Benson was DHS's basketball queen. Of course, leave us not forget (if you'll forgive the grammar) the annual king, Gary Richards. Then too, there was the Powder Puff Bowl king, Grady Venable. Ah yes, we did enjoy it all.

For olde times sake, let's rehash olde times' happenings. Three years ago, excitement in the form of a bomb shook DHS. Remember two years ago the music room took on a new look? Yup, 20th Century Provincial barn style complete with one live horse! Then this year the Den was remodeled, dan-dee dogs were buried, green lights were chucked, and mercy me, the ten-minute break broke! But we seniors still survived. The YMCA opened up right across from high school!

The senior class of 1958 had leadership from and by many people. Gary Richards was named the most outstanding senior boy and also received the coveted Crossman Award. Linda Benson was named outstanding senior girl.

The senior class is also proud of Jeanne Smith, winner of a $1000 National Merit Scholarship. She proved that the senior class did have smart girls.

Oh, those rough workouts, moaned senior girls as they drilled for the annual Powder Puff game. Their coaches (for safety reasons we won't print any names!) really cracked the whip on them. But all their work and bruises were not in vain for the seniors victoriously defeated the juniors.

The senior class will never forget the Junior-Senior Prom and the "Sayonara Seniors 58." It was beautiful. Everyone had a wonderful time.

1958 senior class officers were Gary Richards, president; Jo Ann Buckholts, vice president; Fern Allen, secretary-treasurer; and J. W. Lanier, reporter. Everyone take their hats off to these seniors. They did a superb job.

All in all, it was a good year for everyone and without further ado, the bid you a fond farewell.

SENIORS OF 1958

JUNIORS

The juniors "became of age" when they received those precious rings. The boys soon learned to peek around corners for the girls hiding to catch them. This was the first time that the boys were ever afraid of the girls, but then this was the first time the girls had such a purpose for living.

Four fine representatives of the junior class were the class officers. These were: Janie Leonard, president; Judy Nelson, vice-president; Nancy Murray, secretary; Sharon Shaklee, reporter.

With the first signs of autumn came football season. And with football came queens. The junior football queen candidate was Judy Nelson.

Another representing the beauty of the junior class was Georgia Kay Bourland, the junior basketball queen candidate.

The junior girls knew what work was when they began searching for Junior-Senior Weekend dates with those poor hapless victims (alias junior boys).

Then came the Powder Puff football game. Even though the juniors weren't victorious, they still got plenty of valuable training for their next game.

The juniors didn't let this defeat bother them. They still had plenty of pep and were led by the three junior cheerleaders, Kay Bennett, Anita Griggs and Judy Nelson.

The boys were happy when Sadie Hawkins Day Plus One came around. This is better known as the time when the girls do the asking and the paying.

But the juniors had their share of honors. Fifteen juniors were initiated into the National Honor Society. Then six juniors were chosen for Girls' and Boys' State. They were: Marjorie Brooks, Mary Ann Bulla, Anita Griggs, Al Chew, Larry Edwards and Bob Leedy.

More honors were heaped upon the juniors when Nancy Romine received the Sir Alexander Fleiming award for outstanding work in the field of science.

Then came the prom and it was Sayonara Seniors. But this wasn't really good-bye to the seniors. For the juniors of today are the seniors of tomorrow.

SOPHOMORES

After years of dreaming in junior high about ten-minute breaks, the only break the peons of 1957-58 got was a tough one! They entered the shining portals of DHS in the year (known in history as the year of the drafting class) when not only ten-minute breaks, but also the Den, dan-dee dogs and green lights were abolished.

However, this class wasn't "strictly from hunger." Soph Julie Strother was crowned state Spanish queen at Norman over 30 other contestants, and basketball and football queen candidates, not to mention Mike Killingsworth, Ugly Man on Campus, were all well-chosen!

In the sports spotight, Larry Mayrant (basketball) and Lynn Holzberlein, Billy Horner, Danny Eoff and Jim Barnard (football) did a good job of representing
